ANNUAL STAFF

DEDICATION

We, the Sophisco Staff of 1963, dedicate our annual to the City of Sopchoppy and the City Council in appreciation of the generous gift, the scoreboard, for our football field, that we received from them this fall. We feel that we are especially fortunate in having community leaders who show such constructive interest in our school.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

In the few short years our departed friend, Wilmer Abel Strickland, Jr., lived, his influence for things good, noble, and pure have had a significant effect on each of us. May his memory live and serve as an inspiration to challenge us to higher moral and spiritual achievements. He loved his fellow man and was loved by him in return.

IN MEMORIAM

WILMER ABEL STRICKLAND, JR.

God gave us an Angel
From the heavens above
To walk in our midst
And teach us to love.
His life, as an example,
Taught all of us faith
And to be in his presence
Was Christianity and grace.
Now let our hearts rejoice
And dry away the tears
Since he has joined the Angels;
Of that we have no fears.
God saw fit to call him
From our little town
But his name will be remembered
In the echo of every sound.

CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of Sopchoppy High School, in this year of 1962 to 1963 being in reasonably good health and of doubtfully sound mind, do hereby make and publish this our last will and testament.

I, Patsy Anderson, will my "wee" trim figure to Judy Chason and to Betty Gail Ringo my black hair.

I, Rose Ann Barwick, will to Shirley Revell my nickname, "Rambling Rose."

I, Leonard Burke, will to Kathryn Sanders, my black, curly hair.

I, Gary Brown, will to Walter Lee Roberts the back seat of my car.

I, Brenda Crowson, will my ability to entertain the boys in Government class to Dorothy Gray.

I, Kenneth Crum, will to George Crum, my ability to work six days a week and stay broke.

I, Terry Davis, will to Jimmy Henderson my ability to get intoxicated at class parties.

I, David Gray, will to Dale Crowson my ability as a hunter and to make the highest on Senior Placement Test.

I, Rodney Gray, will to Robert Thompson my ability to play baseball.

I, Barney Harrell, will to Sherida Sanders my ability to stay in applied math.

I, Mike Langston, will to Mark Roddenberry, my position as President of the Student Council.

I, Jack Henderson, will to Walter Lee Roberts my ability to make 100's in Math and fail the other subjects.

I, Gerald Langston, will to Larry Lawhon my ability to play the guitar and sing.

I, Wesley Smith, will to Connie Wilson my height.

I, Lanie Spears, will to Betty Sue McLanghlin my ability to be Homecoming Queen and lose your girl friends one day and gain them back the next.

I, Roger Stokley, will my position of "Colonel in the Bull Gang" and my nickname "Sam" to Anthony Sanders.

I, Gerrie Stribling, will my ability to boss whom I please, where I please, and how I please to Zelda Stuber.

I, Linda Stribling, will to June Roberts, my 3,000 word theme on "Punctuality" in case she ever needs it.

I, Johnny Strickland, will my ability to make straight one-legged A's to Jesse Quigg.

I, Sarah Strickland, will my ability to get to school on time to Patsy Roberts. Ha! and to Mattie Revell my "bow legs."

I, Levon Taylor, will to Willard Earl Sanders my ability to remain the lone wolf, of his class.

I, Nathan Thompson, will to Johnny Ross my ability to tame the wildest girl in four years.

I, Rhonda White, will to Daisy White my height and red, tight, skirt.
